Did You Ever Stop to Think

That your wife might get sick? That there'd be a hired girl in the kitchen? That there'd be doctor's bills to pay? That the rent might come due? That you might have to meet the last installment on your furniture? That you might break a leg? That taxes are certain as death? That all these things require ready money? That such events have befallen others? That they may happen to you? Moral: PREPARE FOR IT by pinching out a little now before it happens. DAN CUSICK A SWIMMER.

Enjoys Laugh at Expense of Companions at C. & H. Baths.

Don Cusick surprised and entertained a small circle of friends at an informal swimming exhibition at the C. & H. Baths yesterday.

Although Mr. Cusick is 34 years of age and had not swum for forty years or more, he executed some of the most difficult strokes in remarkable form.

Incidentally a couple of Dan's friends saw a swimming match.

Mr. Cusick is a poor swimmer, they would say, but he was prepared to rescue him when he found the swimmer in trouble.

And they did not know what to do when they found the swimmer in trouble.

When they found the swimmer in trouble, they did not know what to do.

When they found the swimmer in trouble, they did not know what to do.

COMMEMORATE CHRIST'S DEATH

Rev. H. B. Ziegler Launches Project for the Boy Scouts

Rev. Howard B. Ziegler, missionary priest of the Episcopal church who has been stationed in the copper country for several months, during which time he has assisted in the organization of several troops of Boy Scouts, has inaugurated a movement which he hopes will become statewide and nationwide for the more general observance of Good Friday, especially by the boy scouts.

The significance of Good Friday, the anniversary of Christ's death, is frequently lost sight of by Christian people, Rev. Ziegler believes. When a president of the United States dies, during his term of office, at the time of his funeral there is a general cessation of business for a few moments throughout the country; the country is silent out of respect for his memory. When the president of a great railway system dies there is a cessation of business in its shops and offices for a few minutes at the hour of his funeral; the system is silent out of respect for his memory. The veterans of the Grand Army observe a few minutes' silence at noon on Memorial Day in commemoration of the death of their comrades. It is the world's way of showing respect. There is no expression of recognition or commemoration of the sacrifice and death of the world's Saviour by the great Christian world. It observes Christmas in recognition of His birth; it very largely observes Easter in commemoration of His resurrection; there are Good Friday services; but for multitudes of people who call themselves Christians, who believe in Christ, who honor His memory and trust in His atoning death, there is no expression or commemoration of His death, which at all corresponds with that of His birth and resurrection.

So Rev. Ziegler plans to have the various branches of the boy scouts hold commemorative exercises on Good Friday. One of the features of these exercises would be the raising of the American flag at 12 o'clock noon, the hour upon which Christ is supposed to have been crucified. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the hour at which Christ is supposed to have died, Rev. Ziegler would have the flags lowered to half mast and remain at half mast throughout the remainder of the afternoon and all of the Saturday following.

Rev. Ziegler has submitted this plan to the organization of boy scouts at Houghton and Wolverine, an organization composed of seventy members. The organization is the Wolverine division, 104 County road, and the project was enthusiastically received. The members were unanimous in their desire to observe Good Friday in this manner and will endeavor to prevail upon other organizations to do likewise.

Prof. Vincent, second master of the Centennial Heights and Calumet M. E. troops has also taken an active interest in the movement proposed by Rev. Ziegler and will endeavor to hold suitable exercises. The boys will request that they be permitted to raise a flag on one of the Centennial Heights schools.

John W. Palmer, master of the First Presbyterian boy scouts is likewise enthusiastic over the plan, as are the members of his troop, but in this instance the boys have access to no flag staff which may be used for this purpose.

It is felt heartily that the plan proposed by Rev. Ziegler is of such merit that other organizations throughout the length and breadth of the country will take it up, with the result that Good Friday will be one of the foremost days on the calendar of holidays.

Special poultry meeting, Thursday evening, 8:00 o'clock, Y. M. C. A. All members of the State show of Upper Michigan are requested to attend. All others interested are welcome.

B. SEIGHMAN, Secretary.

The eighth biennial convention of the Slovenian-Croatian Union, that has been in session in Ely, Minn., for eight days came to a close Tuesday afternoon one of the most interesting meetings of its history. The thirty-seven delegates who represented the Calumet branches at this gathering are expected home tomorrow.

The three subjects that caused the greatest discussions were: The adopting of the National Fraternal Congress' schedule of rates; the decision to hold the sessions of the union only once in three years instead of biennially, and the payment of all benefits for sickness or death from the central treasury instead of from the local unions. All were adopted.

The convention of 1917 will be held in Eveleth.

Officers for the three-year term were chosen as follows: President, Anton Gerzin, Chisholm; vice president, Frank Gregorich, South Range; Mich. assistant secretary, Joseph Butala, Ahmeek; treasurer, Michael Slopch, Calumet.
